JOURNAL of the WEST

EDITORIAL AND PUBLICATION OFFICES:

1915 SOUTH WESTERN AVENUE, LOS ANGELES 18, CALIFORNIA

Telephone REpublic 4-1911

JOURNAL OF THE WEST, Lorrin L. Morrison and Carroll Spear Morrison, editors and publishers, is a privately-owned historical and geographical Quarterly magazine which is published four times each year, during the months of January, April, July and October. Publication, editorial and advertising offices are located at 1915 South Western Avenue, Los Angeles 18, California. Annual subscription rates are $6.00 per year, payable in advance. Single-copy price is $2.00, except Vol. I, No. 1 (July, 1962), which is $2.50. Second Class Postage paid at Los Angeles, California. The editors solicit historical, and geographical articles, papers and manuscripts for publication in JOURNAL OF THE WEST. Articles, papers and manuscripts treating upon Western archaeology, anthropology, geology, and related sciences, as well as works on exploration, settlement, commerce and industry, culture and literature, politics and government are welcome. Manuscripts must be submitted at owner's own risk and, while the editors check all articles published for historical accuracy, authors must bear full responsibility for interpretations, ideas, statements, quotations and historical facts contained in their work, either documented or undocumented. Statements of opinion expressed by authors are their own views and are not necessarily the opinions or views of the editors and publishers. JOURNAL OF THE WEST carries a general copyright covering the contents of each issue published. Address all manuscripts and communications to the address printed above. Please enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope or mailing label with all manuscripts submitted and allow from four to six weeks for reading and consideration of articles submitted for publication. Advertising rates will be sent upon application.
